

AIR LAW AND REGULATIONS

Code: ALS 2200

24-26 August 2020 | Virtual Training

Course Overview

This virtual training course is specifically designed to provide aviation professionals with an understanding of the principles of air law. A review of Important legal instruments on an international, regional and domestic level will be provided. Case studies and major recent developments which have significantly impacted the aviation industry will be reviewed to illustrate how international laws are applied to practical scenarios affecting daily operational duties.

Course Content and Topics Covered

- Sources of international air law
- Key legal instruments governing international civil aviation
- Relevant international aviation organizations
- International standards and recommended practices
- Aircraft accident investigation
- Liability: Air carrier liability for passengers, baggage and cargo; Liability of ANSPs, airport operators, manufacturers, regulatory authorities, employees
- Aviation security
- Recent developments
- Case studies

Registration www.alsaviation.com

Course fee €800 +19% VAT

Enquiries: sofia.m@alsaviation.com Tel:+357 99611544

The aviation industry is one of the most complex and highly regulated industries. Intricate layers of international, regional and national laws, regulations and policies govern the daily operations of civil aviation.

Who Should Attend

All persons working in an aviation organization who want to gain an understanding of the complex structure of International Air Law, Civil Aviation Laws and Regulations.

Presentation Format

Instruction and discussions

Take home: Certificate / Course Material

About ALS

ALS Aviation is an innovative, dynamic and multi-disciplined global organisation providing a wide range of specialised services related to the Legal, Safety and Training aspects of the Aviation Industry.

Instructor Dr. Sofia Mateou

ICAO Trainer Plus Training Instructor

www.alsaviation.com