

AVIATION CONTRACT LAW

7-9 September 2020 Virtual Training Code ALS2100

Course Overview

This virtual training course provides professionals dealing with aviation contracts with in-depth comprehensive knowledge and practical application of key contractual issues related to the aviation industry. Focus is given to aviation contracts and how they can affect the day to day operational aspects of aviation organizations, financial implications and organizational ramifications. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of contractual principles and guidance on how to apply aviation contract best practices in the increasingly complex legal and aviation business environment.

Course Content and Topics Covered

Understanding Contract Law
Essential Element of Contract Law and Good Drafting Practices
Factors Vitiating a Contract
Aviation Service Level Agreements
Aviation Leasing Contracts
Contract of Employment
Breach of Contract
Remedies
Case studies and Exercises

Registration www.alsaviation.com

Course fee €1000+19% VAT

Enquiries: sofia.m@alsaviation.com

Tel:+357 99611544

Contract law is the foundation to the starting up and running of a business and forms an integral part of every facet of the day to day operations in the aviation industry. However, there are many considerations and possible pitfalls to take note of when dealing with aviation related contracts.

Who Should Attend

Aviation professionals and employees within aviation companies dealing with contracts, anyone with a keen interest to obtain in-depth knowledge in the fields of aviation and contract law.

Presentation Format

Instruction and discussions

Take home: Certificate / Course Material

About ALS

ALS Aviation is an innovative, dynamic, multi-disciplined global organisation providing a wide range of specialised services related to the Legal, Safety and Training aspects of the Aviation Industry.

Instructor Dr. Sofia Mateou

ICAO Trainer Plus Training
Instructor