

AVIATION INDUSTRY: ESSENTIAL CONCEPTS AND CHALLENGES

Code: ALS 1600

17-19 August 2020 | Virtual Training

Course Overview

This virtual training course provides a comprehensive understanding of the aviation industry and the interaction of the different stakeholders who ensure safety and efficiency, allowing participants to expand their knowledge and enhance their careers within the aviation, and in particular, airline operations

Course Content and Topics Covered

- Significance of Aviation
- Legal and Regulatory Framework
- International Aviation Bodies
- State of the Aviation Industry and Impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic
- Aviation Infrastructure
- Aviation stakeholders: Airports, Operators, Air Traffic Management and Air Navigation Services, Ground Handling Organizations, Maintenance Organizations
- Aviation Safety
- Aviation Security
- Passenger Rights
- Aviation and the Environment

Registration www.alsaviation.com

Course fee €800 + 19% VAT

Enquiries: sofia.m@alsaviation.com Tel: +357 99611544

The aviation industry involves many aspects of air travel with many stakeholders. It facilitates global trade, tourism and economic growth but at the same time the aviation industry needs to be resilient to overcome the many external pressures and challenges that it faces.

Who Should Attend

All persons working in an aviation organization who want to gain a better understanding of current issues affecting the aviation industry and anyone with a keen interest to obtain in-depth knowledge in the fields of aviation.

Presentation Format

Instruction and discussions

Take home: Certificate / Course Material

About ALS

ALS Aviation is an innovative, dynamic, multi-disciplined global organisation providing a wide range of specialised services related to the Legal, Safety and Training aspects of the Aviation Industry.

Instructor Dr. Sofia Mateou

ICAO Trainer Plus Training Instructor